Class Rules

- Be punctual. 15 mins late is allowed. Arrive after 15 mins is considered late. Attendance check weekly
- In the case of absence, please fill out leave form and submit to my email. No Line group. Again, we will be using emails and MS Teams to communicate
- Raise your hands if you want to say something
- In case of online class, turn on your cameras.
- Be interactive and respect others!

About Investment Planning Module

- Focus on teaching about the understanding the rational behind investment.
- Understanding the terminology and the calculations involved is important.
- Regularly following the news, listening to and reading the analysis will make better decisions.
- Don't believe in everything you read!, listen to opinions carefully, be comprehensive, and make your own decisions.
- The money is yours. The decision to buy and sell is to sell at oneself. Responsible for their own money.
- Will there be profit or loss? People who provide news, analysts Teachers, or anyone else can't force you.

Investment is risky, investors should understand the characteristics of Assets and should study the information of the assets. Before you decide to invest

Life Cycle Hypothesis

The silent thief stealing your money every day: Inflation.

The value of money changes over time (Time Value of Money: TVM).

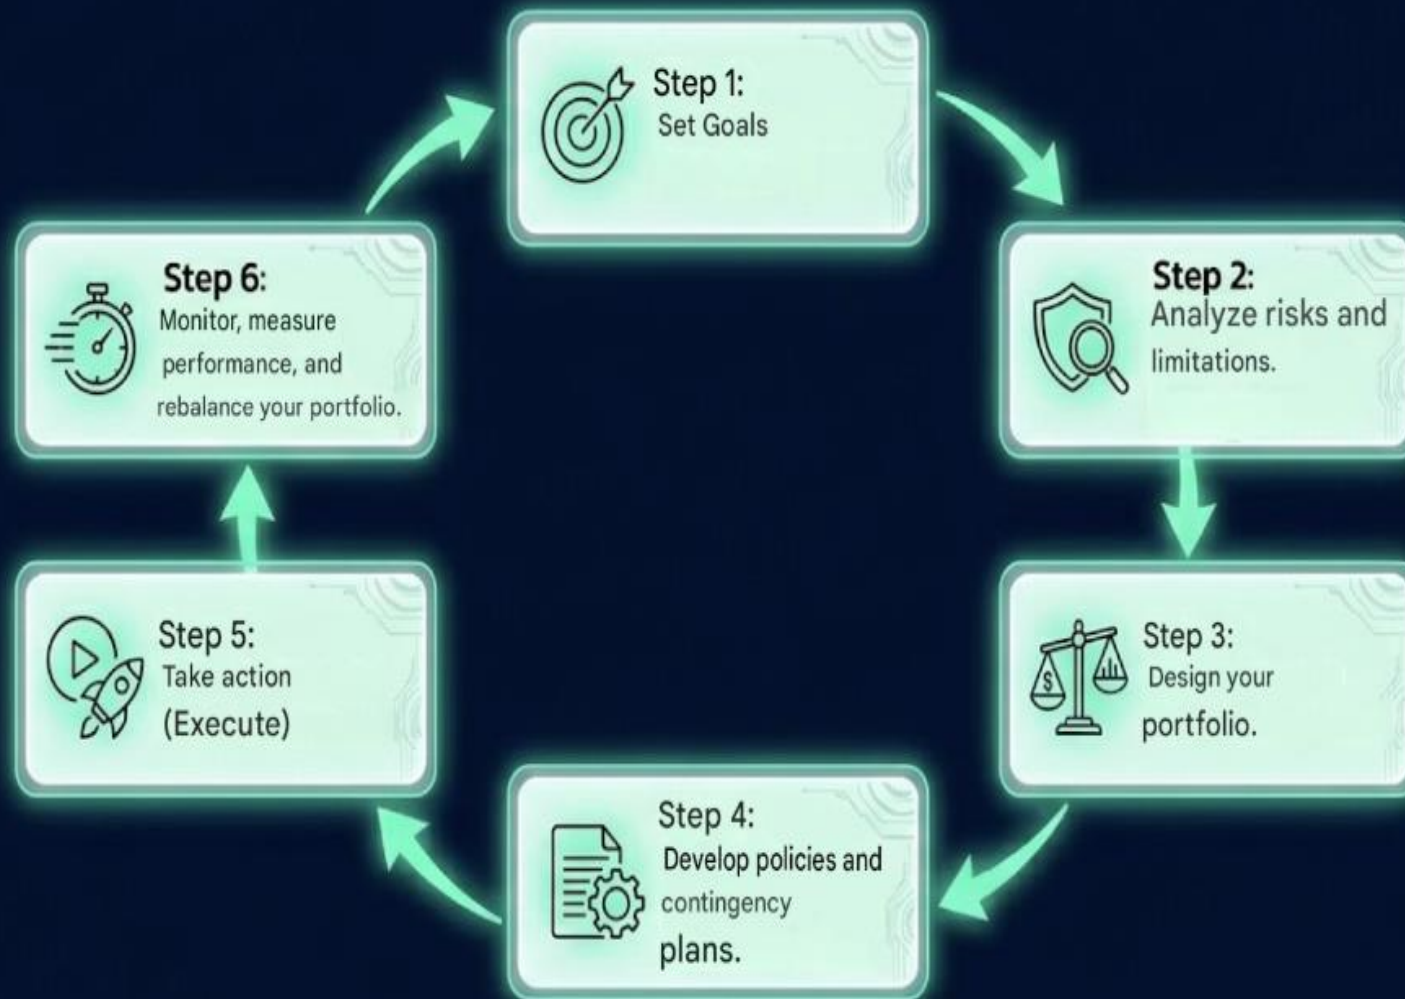

If we don't invest our money, we will definitely "lose" due to inflation.
One baht today is worth more than one baht in the future.

The Risk-Return Staircase

The Blueprint: 6 Steps to Success (Implement)

Wealth is not a matter of chance, but of intentional design – see you in the next chapter!

What have We LEARNED?

So far...

Investment is to delay spending today to buy assets.
It aims to receive Cash Flow The increase in value to be worth the opportunity cost, compensate for inflation, and compensate for risk.

Check your status before you start investing.
Financial Triangle Aim to generate passive income
To create wealth for themselves.
